Tracking the Response to Anti-LGBTQ+ Legislation in East Africa

01 Jul 2026 By Admin User East Africa

A regional review of legal challenges, community support networks, and media coverage following recent legislative developments.

This piece brings together verified media monitoring records and legal alerts to track civil society's response to recent anti-LGBTQ+ legislative developments across the region.

Community support networks have emerged as a critical resource where formal legal protections remain limited, while legal challenges continue to work through regional courts.
